

Safety procedures for event participants / visitors to Mieczysław Karłowicz Philharmonic Concert Hall in Szczecin applicable during SARS-CoV-2 pandemic

1. Events held in the Concert Hall may be attended by a specified number of spectators which depends on the particular space within the building and is as follows:
 - the Main Lobby – 148 people (excluding the cafe area),
 - the Symphonic Hall – 400 people,
 - the Chamber Music Hall – 88 people,
 - the ‘Level 4’ Gallery – 106 people.
2. Guided tours of the Concert Hall are available to groups of up to 15 people by appointment with the Concert Hall guide.
3. Event participants staying in the Concert Hall spaces are required to:
 - keep a distance of at least 1.5 meters from other people,
 - use hand disinfectant available in several generally accessible places throughout the building (at the entrances, in the lobby, in toilets) each and every time they enter the Concert Hall,
 - cover their mouths and noses with their own personal protective equipment (face masks, face shields).
4. To participate in an event, each visitor must submit a written statement (the template is enclosed herewith as Appendix 1) that, to the best of their knowledge, they are not infected and are not under quarantine or active monitoring.
5. Spectators participating in events organized by the Philharmonic are recommended to print out the statement form on their own and sign it before they arrive at the Concert Hall. The statement form will be available for print-out on the Philharmonic’s website. If the statement form cannot be printed out, it can be filled out upon the spectator’s arrival at the Concert Hall. The signed statement, together with a valid ticket, must be presented to the Concert Hall attendant before the event and left in the building in a specially designated place.
6. In the case of events organized by third parties on a space rental basis, the event organizer is responsible for providing and collecting relevant statements. The statement form template and the manner of submitting statements may differ from those adopted by the Philharmonic.
7. In order to maintain social distancing, admission to the Concert Hall will start up to 1 hour in advance of the event. Event participants may be divided into groups which will be admitted to the auditorium at appropriate time intervals.
8. The attended cloakroom in the Concert Hall is closed. Event participants are requested to secure their personal belongings on their own, either by leaving them in their parked cars or by taking them with them to the auditorium.
9. Priority in using the lifts in the Concert Hall is given to persons with disabilities, families with small children and pregnant women.
10. Notwithstanding the foregoing rules, visitors can participate in events provided that they occupy specifically assigned seats in the auditorium (half of the seats are available, with one seat left free between spectators; the first row, boxes A and B from seats no. 25, and the choir gallery are closed for the audience).
11. The obligation to keep one seat free between spectators does not apply to:
 - persons accompanying children under the age of 13,
 - persons holding disability and disability degree certificates, persons holding statements of special educational needs, and persons who cannot move unassisted due to their state of health.

12. The Philharmonic reserves the right to refuse entry to the building and participation in an event to persons who do not use personal protective equipment and fail to comply with the above sanitary requirements.
13. Events are held at specified times and proceed without any intervals. The suggested maximum duration of the event programme is 80 minutes.
14. The audience will leave the Concert Hall in accordance with the following rules:
 - the audience will be let out of the building in groups / by sections without unnecessary delays,
 - additional entrances to the underground car park will be open (accessible from Małopolska and Matejki streets),
 - the flow of the audience will be controlled by the event staff.
15. For each event, the organizer is obliged to appoint a health coordinator who will ensure compliance with the above procedures.
16. The 'Symfonia' cafe located in the lobby of the Concert Hall operates according to separate rules, and is independently responsible for ensuring compliance with the guidelines of the Minister of Health and the Chief Sanitary Inspector in respect of the requirements of the sanitary regime.
17. The actions taken by the Mieczysław Karłowicz Philharmonic in Szczecin follow the guidelines of the Minister of Culture and National Heritage, the Minister of Health and the Chief Sanitary Inspector, and are meant to minimize the risk of COVID-19 transmission, but despite the safety measures taken, they will not eliminate the risk of infection in 100 per cent.
18. These procedures will apply until further notice.
